

AMERICAN FINANCE ASSOCIATION

Publisher of the Journal of Finance

Prof. James Schallheim

Executive Secretary and Treasurer

January 2021

To Those Seeking Permissions for Academic Classroom Use:

Permission is granted to reproduce articles for classroom use by accredited, not-for-profit colleges and universities or their appointed agents without charge for:

- Classes of a faculty member who is a subscriber to The Journal of Finance.
- Classes at a college or university with a library subscription to The Journal of Finance.

Articles also may be distributed for classroom use in electronic (pdf) form if they are stored on a password-protected website at said institution or its agent.

Non-subscribers seeking to reproduce articles should contact Wiley-Blackwell Publishing Company (jrights@wiley.com) regarding permission.

This form is valid through February 1, 2022.

University of Utah
David Eccles
School of Business

1655 E Campus
Center Drive
Salt Lake City,
UT 84112

phone: 801-581-4434
fax: 801-581-3956
E-mail: jim.schallheim@eccles.utah.edu

STYLE AND SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- (1) Authors must submit papers electronically. Instructions for submission and manuscript preparation are available at the submission site, <https://afajof.org/submissions/>.
- (2) All submitted manuscripts must be original work that is not under submission at another journal or under consideration for publication in another form, such as a monograph or chapter of a book. Authors of submitted papers are obligated not to submit their paper for publication elsewhere until an editorial decision is rendered on their submission.
- (3) Refereeing at the Journal of Finance is single-blind. The first page of your paper should be a title page containing the title of the manuscript, the names of the authors, and an abstract of not more than 100 words.
- (4) All manuscripts should be submitted in PDF format and must not exceed 60 pages in length, with 1.5 line spacing, 12-point font, 1-inch side margins, and 1.5-inch top/bottom margins. This page limit includes internal appendices, reference lists, figures, and tables. Papers exceeding this page limit will be immediately desk-rejected. Additional material may be included in an Internet Appendix attached at the end of the manuscript. However, the paper must be self-contained so that readers can understand the study in its entirety without having to rely on any separate material.
- (5) Footnotes should appear at the bottom of the page on which they are referenced (that is, they should not be endnotes that appear at the end of the document).
- (6) Tables and figures can appear either embedded or at the end of the manuscript. Please ensure that all variables and graphs are clearly labelled and easily understood.
- (7) All but very short mathematical expressions should be displayed on a separate line. Equations should be numbered consecutively on the right margin.
- (8) The introductory section should emphasize the incremental contributions of your research. Citations should be kept to the minimum required to clarify and highlight your contributions. The article should end with a brief nontechnical summary statement of the main conclusions.
- (9) If your paper uses proprietary data (that is not available for purchase by the academic community) and is accepted for publication, your final submission must be accompanied by an authorization letter showing that the source of the data approves its use in a JF publication.
- (10) All papers are subject to the JF's Submission Guidelines and Policies and the Conflict of Interest Disclosure Policy. See the submission website for more details.